

*From inside the fish,
Jonah prayed to the LORD his God.
- Jonah 2:1*

Welcome

Pastor Lee

Thank you for taking time to connect with God and community today. It is good to be together while apart. Online space can be sacred space. May our worship today calm our fears, inspire our desires, and empower positive change within us and through us.

Call to Worship

Abbie Grimstad

One: O Lord my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me.

All: O Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.

One: Sing praises to the Lord, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger is but for a moment; his favor is for a lifetime.

All: Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

- Psalm 30:1-5

Hymn From All that Dwell Below the Skies # 101

Unison Prayer

Oh God, our Rock and our Redeemer -
Like Jonah we sometimes run from your presence. Yet you do not abandon us to isolation and despair. Thank you for all the comfort and all the challenge you provide as we journey on together. Here we are to worship and to wonder, to sing and to surrender, to pour out – and to be filled. Amen.

* Our parking lot Labyrinth is open for use. Thanks to Connie and Rudy Edwards for their support getting it started. Come give it a try, while it lasts! This activity is open to the neighborhood and companions the Journey's with Jonah series for our congregation. (Labyrinths are symbolic of life's journey. Monks used them as a form of pilgrimage when travel to Jerusalem was not possible.) The parking lot labyrinth is drawn with approximately 360 yards of painter's tape, which is affordable and easy to work with, but also vulnerable to rain. Improvement ideas welcome. Check it out while it lasts!
